Pittsburgh, Dec. 8. N. S.

FOUR Noblemen of the Dolgorucki Family are put to Death at Novogrod, and two others of the same Family whose Lives are spar'd have been carried to Places where they are closely confin'd, and condemn'd to Imprisonment for Life. They are accus'd, amongst other Crimes, of having trump'd up a Will, which they pretend was made in Favour of their Family by the Czar Peter II. who was befor'd a little before his Death to a Princess of that Name.
But it seems the Discovery of this Conspiracy is not owing to any Paper found upon the late Major Sinclair, as was given out. In all Probability it cannot be long ere we shall be better inform'd of this Affair, the Czarina having order'd a Declaration to be published with the Particulars of their Crimes, and the Mores founded on the Laws of God and Man that engag'd the Ministers of the Cabinet, the Senate, and the Assembly of the Clergy to pass Sentence of Death on them. The Garrison of this City is lately reinforced. By a Expresses from the Ukraine we hear, that the Russia Cavalry which made the Campaign under the Count de Munich was arriv'd at Kiow, and Part of the Infantry at Biskovitow, on the Frontiers of the Ukraine, and that the said General was gone to meet the Count de Tarlo, to agree with him on the Sum which the Quarrel is to pay to the Republick for making good the Damage done by her Troops in Poland; and that good 6000 Men of his Troops are to march towards Livonia.

Hague, Dec. 19. O. S. The late Rumor at Petersbourg of a Conspiracy discover'd there against the Government was but too well founded, and 'tis certain now that the Grand Council which we were told was lately held there with a strong Guard of Soldiers before the Gate of the Palace, sat up 'n the Subject of this important Disc very, and the Means of securing the guilty Persons, b th Principals and Accomplices, that were withdrawn. This Affair, which has taken up almost all Count Osterman's Time for Three Month's past, in order to get to the Bottom of it, has since been pursued with very great Secrecy; and just now we hear, that there has been a grand Execution at Petit Novogrod of several of the Bojars and Great Men of the Russia Empire, the Heads of a Conspiracy form'd against the Czarina, to disturb the Tranquility of that Empire, and bring about a general Revolution. This Execution was not perform'd in a private but in a publick Manner, and four Persons of a distinguish'd Family have therin lost their Lives by the Sword and the Bar, that is to say, have been broke upon the Whe. 1. Others have suffer'd varius Kinds of Punishment, and been chaff'd after the Manner of the Russians, so that the least Guilty have had a Punishment in Proportion to their Guilt, and then banish'd to Siberia.
This is said to be the greatest Execu ion that has been in that absolute and despotic Empire since the Reign of the Czar Peter I. 'Tis certain, that those unfortunate Gentlemen had held Correspondence abroad with the Enemies of the Russian Government, and that their Conspiracy was first detect'd by Intelligence from foreign Parts.

Letters of the 7th from Vienna say, that the Turks having laid aside their Presensions to Sabotch, the Imperialists are finishing the Demolition of the Citadel of Belgrade, in order to put it into the Hands of the Turks. A Marriage is talk'd of between Prince Charles of Lorain and the Archduchess Mary Anne, the Emperor's sec'd Daughter.

Extract of a Letter from Ispahan of July 3.

There have been great Reci sions here for a Week past on account of the signal Victories lately gain'd by our Sopli, who was formerly st. l'd Kan.

Kan This fortunate Hero won five Battles, in the last of which the Great Mogul, Tregon Dagier, Emperor of Indostan, was taken Prisoner, and came and fell at his Feet, after having seen the Defeat of his Army, which consisted of near 30000 Men. A great Number of Elphant's laden with Gold, Silver, Diamonds, Pearls and other precious Things, and all the Treasures in general of that unfortunate Prince were taken. But our Monarch, from a Principle of Generosity which has no Precedent, not only granted him his Life, but also restor'd him to his Throne, on Condition only that he should pay him a yearly Tribute. But this Prince was so ungrateful as to rally his Troops and for t'y himself in the City of Agra. Which base Behaviour of his was so justly provoking to our Sopli, that he then pursu'd him as a Rebel. The Great Mogul not being yet in a Condition at that Time to make Head agai st him, retir'd upon the first News of his Apprach, and taking his Wives and his Family along with him, he pass'd beyond the Bay of Bengal.
When he was gone our new Sopli took Possession of all the Provinces of Indostan and the Countries thereon depending, assu'g'd the Title of the Emperor of the Mogul, and the b ter to secure his Conquests, order'd 4000 Noblemen of the Country that he had conquer'd, to be brought Prisoners to this and several other Cities of Persia, so that we shortly expect them with a Multi ude of Camels and Elephants.

N. B. The great Mogul now dethron'd is the Grand Nephew of Astengeb so famous in History, who dy'd the 4th of March 1707, aged 91.

An Infallible CURE For Barrenness in Women, and Impotency in Men, By Superlative ENLIVENING DROPS; Which in a few Days render both Sexes Prolific in a most wonderful Manner.

Hundreds of Ladies who were deem'd incurably Barren, and very many who thought themselves too old to bear Children, have immediately conceived after three or four Doses of them only; and vast Numbers of GENTLEMEN by taking them, have presently become capable of propagating their Species, who before, thro' either Impotency or Age, imagin'd it impossible.

They almost instantly renovate the vital Ferments of the Blood and Juices, redify the languid State of all the Fluids, rouse, kindle, and increase the Spirits, invigorate the Nerves, infuse fresh Warmth, and cause a sparkling Gladiolus and robust Course to flow in the Heart, and expand itself thro' the whole human System, so sensibly to enliven and invigorate all the animal Functions, and corroborate or strengthen the whole Body, as well as the Sex appropriated to Generation, and do infallibly cure Barrenness in one Sex, and impotency in the other, from what Causes soever, as Thousands have experienced.

They are also pleasant to take, are Cordial to the Stomach, create an Appetite, and produce a good Digestion, beyond any thing known in the World. And are to be had only at Mr. RADFORD's Toy-Shop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-Yard, in the Strand, Price 5 s. the Bottle, with Directions.
